Starting the process at the Embassy:

The interested person must send the documents to the Embassy of Costa Rica in Berlin. Once the documents have been revised an appointment at the Embassy will be given in order to sign the application form. Please bring the original passport to the appointment.

The interested person must send the documents to the Embassy of Costa Rica in Berlin at least one month and a half prior to the flight to Costa Rica.

If you start the process at an Honorary Consulate of Costa Rica in Germany, you must also do so a month and a half in advance, but you must coordinate previously with the respective Consulate.

Concluding the process in Costa Rica

On the day of the appointment the visa will be stamped in the applicant's passport and the original documentation will be returned. The interested person must travel to Costa Rica within 60 days after the visa is stamped. After entering Costa Rica, the interested person will have a period of 30 days to formalize the residency application at the Immigration Office (Dirección General de Migración y Extranjería) and must submit the original documents.

Cost:

- - Visa: See Tariff 21 .
- - Any additional costs requested by the Immigration Department (Dirección General de Migración y Extranjería) to finish the application process.

Legal Basis:

- - General Law 8764 of Migration and Foreign Affairs, Title V, Chapter II. (Ley General de Migración y Extranjería).
- - Regulation 36626-G for the issuance of entry visas to Costa Rica, Chapter III, Section I. (Reglamento para el otorgamiento de visas de ingreso a Costa Rica).
